U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The individual under supervision is currently in state custody serving a sentence for a conviction that predates current term of supervised release. It is anticipated he will be released in August 2023. Upon his release, the probation office will closely monitor Jackson's use of substances, and he will be tested regularly. Should the individual under supervision continue to test positive for the use of illicit substances, he will be referred for treatment, and the Court will be notified accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
